

Get IT started – Marketing intern

Get ITstarted

It is a unique 4- month paid program which offers you a real chance to make your first step in IT.

We do not require from you previous experience but we expect technical skills and eagerness to learn the new.

Become a Marketing Ace if you

- have a very good communication and presentation skills
- have marketing or communication experience from studies/organizations
- are self-disciplined with 'Can do' attitude

As a Marketing Ace

- coordination of all communication activities including gamification, newsletters, communication content building due to a tool adoption
- assist in executing existing elements and propose new creative methods of promoting our tools in a Customer environment
- measuring and reporting on results, identifying problem areas and applying corrective actions

Become a Marketing Ace with Capgemini

#getITstarted

What we offer

- Development on expert or leader path
- A wide range of training and co-financing of courses
- Bonuses, including those for recommending new employees
- Attractive package of additional benefits (fitness, gym, cinema, etc.) – you choose what you want
- Additional life insurance and private medical care, also for your family
- Integration events, joint celebrations and an annual family picnic
- Working in a close-knit team and a friendly atmosphere